I 2021, p. 4147) (hereinafter "COVID-19 Act") to be held as a virtual Annual General Meeting without the physical presence of the shareholders and their proxies. Shareholders and their proxies (with the exception of the proxies nominated by the Company) may therefore not physically attend the Annual General Meeting. The decision of the Management Board to hold the Annual General Meeting as a virtual Annual General Meeting also affects the shareholder rights explained below.

1. COVID-19 Act

Article 2

Act on Measures in Corporate Law, the Law Governing Cooperatives, Associations, and Foundations, and Condominium Property Law to Combat the Effects of the COVID-19 Pandemic (excerpt)

Section 1

(2) ¹The management board can decide that the annual meeting of shareholders is to be held as a virtual meeting without the physical presence of the shareholders or their authorized representatives, provided that

1. the audio and visual transmission covers the entire general meeting,
2. the shareholders are able to exercise their voting rights via electronic communications (postal voting or electronic participation) as well as by appointing proxies,

3. the shareholders are granted a right to raise questions by way of electronic communication,
4. waiving the requirement of personal appearance at the meeting, the shareholders exercising their voting rights in accordance with no. 2 are given the opportunity, section 245 no. 1 of the Stock Corporation Act notwithstanding, to object to a resolution to be decided on at the annual meeting of shareholders.

²The management board is at liberty to decide after due consideration and at its discretion how it answers questions; it may also stipulate that questions submitted electronically shall be received no later than one day before the shareholders' meeting.

³Motions and nominations from shareholders that must be made available pursuant to section 126 or section 127 of the Stock Corporation Act are considered submitted during the meeting if the shareholder who submits the motion or nomination has been properly legitimated and registered for the shareholders' meeting.

(6) ¹The management board's decisions as set out in (1) through (5) require the approval of the supervisory board. ²Section 108 para. 4 of the Stock Corporation Act notwithstanding and irrespective of the provisions in the articles of association or rules of procedure, the supervisory board can vote on resolutions of approval in writing, by telephone, or other comparable form without its members being required to be physically present.

(7) Additionally, the provision set out in section 243 para. 3 no. 1 of the Stock Corporation Act notwithstanding, a legal action to set aside a resolution adopted at the annual meeting of shareholders may not cite violations of section 118 para. 1 sentences 3 through 5, para. 2 sentence 2, or para. 4 of the Stock Corporation Act, the violation of formal notification requirements as per section 125 of the Stock Corporation Act, or violation of subsection (2) herein as its foundation, except where willful misconduct on the part of the company can be shown.

Since the pro rata amount of EUR 500,000.00 at Telefónica Deutschland Holding AG is lower than 5% of the share capital, reaching the pro rata amount of EUR 500,000.00 is sufficient. An explanation or a proposed resolution has to be enclosed with each additional agenda item. When calculating this 90-day period there are certain set-off options to which reference is specifically made pursuant to section 70 German Stock Corporation Act (AktG). Furthermore, the provisions of section 121 para. 7 AktG shall apply mutatis mutandis to the calculation of the time limit, i.e. the day of receipt of the demand shall not be counted and a shift from a Sunday, Saturday or a public holiday to a preceding or following working day shall not be considered. Furthermore, sections 187 to 193 German Civil Code (BGB) are not to be applied accordingly.

Such requests must be made in written form (section 126 German Civil Code (BGB)) to the Management Board and must be received by the Company no later than 30 days prior to the virtual General Meeting (not counting the day of the General Meeting and the day of receipt), this is by no later than 24:00 hours (CEST) on 18 April 2022. specific agenda item at the latest 14 days prior to the general meeting. ²The day of the receipt is not counted. ³Public companies have to publish the propositions on their webpage. Section 125 para. 3 applies accordingly.

- (2) ¹Information on a countermotion and the reasons therefore need not be given, if:

 4. a countermotion of such shareholder based on the same facts has already been communicated to a general meeting of the company pursuant to section 125;
 5. the same countermotion of such shareholder on essentially identical grounds has already been communicated pursuant to section 125 to at least two general meetings of the company within the past five years and at such general meetings less than one-twentieth of the share capital represented voted in favour of such countermotion;
 6. the shareholder indicates that he will neither attend nor be represented at the general meeting; or
 7. within the past two years at two general meetings the shareholder failed to move or cause to be moved on his behalf a countermotion communicated by him.

²The statement of grounds need not be communicated if it exceeds 5,000 characters.

- (3) If several shareholders make countermotions in respect of the same resolution, the management board may combine such countermotions and the reasons given.

Section 127 of the German Stock Corporation Act: Nominations by shareholders

¹Section 126 shall apply analogously to nomination by a shareholder for election of supervisory board members or auditors.

²Such nomination need not be supported by statement of grounds. ³Nor need the management board give notice of such nomination if it fails to contain the particulars required by section 124 para. 3 sentence 4 and section 125 para. 1 sentence 5.

⁴The management board is to supplement the nomination by a shareholder of candidates for the supervisory board of companies listed on the stock exchange, to which the German Co-Determination Act (MitbestG), the Act on the Co-Determination by Employees in the Supervisory Boards and Management Boards of Mining Enterprises and Enterprises in the Iron- and Steel-Producing Industry (MontanMitbestG), or the Amending Act on Employee Co-Determination in the Iron- and Steel-Producing Industry (MontanMitbestGErgG) applies, by the following substantive content:

1. Indication of the requirements stipulated by section 96 para. 2,
2. Whether an objection has been raised against the fulfilment of the ratio by the supervisory board as a whole pursuant to section 96 para. 2, third sentence, and
3. The number of seats on the supervisory board that must be filled, at a minimum, by women and men, respectively, in order to fulfil the requirement as to the minimum ratio pursuant to section 96 para. 2, first sentence.

Section 124 of the German Stock Corporation Act: Publication for requests for supplements; proposals for resolutions

- (3) [...] The nomination for the election of supervisory board members or auditors shall state their name, profession and domicile. [...]

Section 125 of the German Stock Corporation Act: Communications to shareholders and Members of the Supervisory Board

- (1) [...] ⁵In case of listed companies details on the membership in other supervisory boards to be established pursuant to statutory provisions must be added to any nomination for the election of supervisory board members; details on their membership in comparable domestic and foreign controlling bodies of enterprises shall be added.

Section 96 Composition of the supervisory board

- (1) The supervisory board shall be composed as follows:

In case of companies to which the German Co-Determination Act (MitbestG) applies: of members of the supervisory board representing the shareholders and the employees;

In case of companies to which the Act on the Co-Determination by Employees in the Supervisory Boards and Management Boards of Mining Enterprises and Enterprises in the Iron- and Steel-Producing Industry (MontanMitbestG) applies: of members of the supervisory board representing the shareholders and the employees and of further members;

In case of companies to which sections 5 to 13 of the Amending Act on Employee Co-Determination in the Iron- and Steel-Producing Industry (MontanMitbestGErgG) apply: of members of the supervisory board representing the shareholders and the employees and of one further member;

In case of companies to which the Act on One-Third Employee Representation in the Supervisory Board (DrittelbG) applies: of members of the supervisory board representing the shareholders and the employees;

In case of companies to which the Act on Employee Co-Determination in the Case of a Cross-Border Merger (MgVG) of 21 December 2006 (Federal Law Gazette (Bundesgesetzblatt) I p. 3332) applies: of members of the supervisory board representing the shareholders and the employees;

In case of any other companies: solely of members of the supervisory board representing the shareholders.

- (2) ¹In case of companies listed on the stock exchange, to which the German Co-Determination Act (MitbestG), the Act on the Co-Determination by Employees in the Supervisory Boards and Management Boards of Mining Enterprises and Enterprises in the Iron- and Steel-Producing Industry (MontanMitbestG) or the Amending Act on Employee Co-Determination in the Iron- and Steel-Producing Industry (MontanMitbestGErgG) applies, the supervisory board shall be composed of women at a minimum ratio of 30 percent and of men at a minimum ratio of 30 percent. ²The minimum ratio is to be fulfilled by the supervisory board as a whole. ³Where, prior to the election, the side of the shareholder representatives or the side of the employee representatives raises an objection with the chairman of the supervisory board, based on a resolution adopted by a majority, against the fulfilment of the ratio by the supervisory board as a whole, the minimum ratio for that election is to be fulfilled separately by the side of the shareholder representatives and by the side of the employee representatives. ⁴In all cases, the ratio is to be mathematically rounded up or down in order to achieve full numbers of persons. ⁵If, in the case of the ratio being fulfilled by the supervisory board as a whole, the higher ratio of women of one side is reduced subsequently and that side then objects to the fulfilment of the ratio by the supervisory board as a whole, this shall not cause the composition of the respective other side to be invalid. ⁶Where an election of members of the supervisory board by the general meeting and their delegation to the supervisory board violates the requirement as to the minimum ratio, this election shall be null and void. ⁷Where an election is declared to be null and void for other reasons, the elections performed in the meantime do not violate the requirement as to the minimum ratio in this regard. ⁸The acts governing co-determination set out in the first sentence are to be applied to the election of members of the supervisory board representing the employees.

4. Right for Shareholders to ask questions pursuant to section 1 para. 2 sentence 1 No. 3, sentence 2 COVID-19 Act

The right to ask questions is only available for shareholders and their proxies who have registered for the virtual General Meeting in accordance with the provisions set out in the convening notice for the Annual General Meeting under section "Conditions for attending the virtual Annual General Meeting without physical presence and for exercising voting rights" in due time.
