

Dr. Jan-Erik Walter

Member of the Supervisory Board, Telefónica Deutschland Holding AG

Chairman of the Group Works Council, Telefónica Deutschland Holding AG

Deputy Chairman of the Works Council, Munich, Telefónica Germany GmbH & Co. OHG

Jan-Erik Walter is member of Supervisory Board at Telefonica Deutschland Holding AG as an employee representative since 2013. Jan-Erik Walter is Chairman of the Group Works Council of Telefónica Deutschland Holding AG since 2016 and Deputy Chairman of the Works Council Munich of Telefónica Germany GmbH & Co. OHG since 2013.

In 1998, he joined the company – at that time VIAG Interkom – after many years as a management consultant. He has been active in various fields and functions within the company since then, among others as a measurement & reporting analyst at Corporate Strategy and as quality management assessor and as internal auditor at Internal Audit.

Jan-Erik Walter is a member of the Assotiation of Socialpolitics (“Verein für Socialpolitik“). He graduated from the Berlin School of Economics with a diploma and a PhD in Economics (Dipl. Oec. and Dr.oec). He also successfully completed a Total Quality Management course at the University of Kaiserslautern.

Jan-Erik Walter was born in 1961 in Blankenburg (Harz).